Washington, D C 20515

Gentlemen:

For several weeks in November 1976, I worked with the Committee in the capacity of attorney. It occurred to me recently that for the periods I was on the payroll, deductions were made for federal retirement; however, at the time of my leaving I failed to execute the necessary forms to withdraw those contributions.

At your convenience, I would appreciate receiving from you the necessary application to withdraw the contributions made by me to the retirement fund. Please return the necessary application to me at the letterhead address. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Kiel
